

GOLDMAN ANTONETTI & CÓRDOVA, P.S.C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

ALL CLIENTS AND FRIENDS:

I am writing to invite you to a free 90-minute webinar sponsored by the Employment Law Alliance entitled, “The U.S. Federal Government’s Attempt to Strengthen the Power of Unions – and Why You Should Care.” The attached announcement describes the program more fully, including the specific issues that the speakers will address.

You are welcome to share this invitation with as many of your colleagues as you want. Since registration is per site, only one person needs to register if you will be in the same room listening together. If you will be in different offices or in different locations, each person will need to register. You will listen to the webinar and view the PowerPoint slides via your computer, so please be sure you have that capability (links and instructions for downloading any software will be included in your registration confirmation).

As you may know, by virtue of our membership in the Employment Law Alliance, we have the capability and resources to handle all of your employment and labor law needs in every US state and in more than 125 countries.

One of the benefits we provide to our clients is free access to the ELA’s Global Employer Handbook. This one-of-a-kind online resource provides practical information on hiring and firing, pay and benefits and all other key employment and H.R. law issues throughout the world. If you haven't yet registered to use this service, I encourage you to do so. I know you will find it useful.

To register, please visit: www.employmentlawalliance.com; on the right side of your computer screen, under “Webinars,” click the link to register.

If you have any questions about the issues that will be presented or the details of registering, please let me know, or you can contact Linda Henderson at the Employment Law Alliance at: leh@employmentlawalliance.com. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to attend this program.

Sincerely,

Luis F. Antonetti
Shareholder and Director of the Labor and Employment Law Department

The NLRB continues to issue decisions and engage in rule making that is attempting to change the landscape for unionized and nonunionized employers. Without “the blessing” of Congress, it is using a comprehensive approach of adjudication and agency legislation to “reform” federal labor policy. During this webinar, leading labor and employment attorneys from across the country will discuss current decisions, the latest proposed rule- and policy-making objectives, and, most importantly, the practical effects on employers and the types of proactive measures that should be considered. Specifically, the speakers will focus on:

- What the Boeing Unfair Labor Practice Complaint means for employers contemplating relocations and alternative sourcing decisions
- How the Department of Labor and the NLRB are trying to “level the playing field” by requiring lawyers and consultants to disclose confidential information concerning the services they are providing to their clients during union election campaigns
- The impact of the proposed changes in NLRB elections on future union organizing campaigns
- How and why the Labor Board is aggressively pursuing both union and non-union employers who discipline their employees for inappropriate use of Facebook and other social media
- Concrete steps you can take right now to minimize the risk of future union organizing

Who Should Attend?

The webinar is an invitation-only event exclusively for clients of ELA member law firms. The information presented will be of particular interest to:

- In-house Counsel
- Human Resources Professionals
- Corporate Executives and Business Owners
- Labor Relations Professionals

CLE/HRCI Credit

The Employment Law Alliance is not able to offer CLE/HRCI credits; however, for states that will accept it, a Certificate of Attendance will be posted with the other webinar materials immediately following the webinar for you to download as needed.
