

GOLDMAN ANTONETTI & CORDOVA, P.S.C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

ALL CLIENTS AND FRIENDS:

I am writing to invite you to a free 90-minute webinar sponsored by the Employment Law Alliance entitled, “Multi-National Companies Doing Business Abroad – Avoiding Common Business Immigration Pitfalls.” The attached announcement describes the program more fully, including the specific issues that the speakers will address.

You are welcome to share this invitation with as many of your colleagues as you want. Since registration is per site, only one person needs to register if you will be in the same room listening together. If you will be in different offices or in different locations, each person will need to register. You will listen to the webinar and view the PowerPoint slides via your computer, so please be sure you have that capability (links and instructions for downloading any software will be included in your registration confirmation).

As you may know, by virtue of our membership in the Employment Law Alliance, we have the capability and resources to handle all of your employment and labor law needs in every US state and in more than 125 countries.

One of the benefits we provide to our clients is free access to the ELA’s Global Employer Handbook. This one-of-a-kind online resource provides practical information on hiring and firing, pay and benefits and all other key employment and H.R. law issues throughout the world. If you haven't yet registered to use this service, I encourage you to do so. I know you will find it useful.

To register, please visit: www.employmentlawalliance.com; on the right side of your computer screen, under “Webinars,” click the link to register.

If you have any questions about the issues that will be presented or the details of registering, please let me know, or you can contact Linda Henderson at the Employment Law Alliance at: leh@employmentlawalliance.com. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to attend this program.

Sincerely,

Luis F. Antonetti
Shareholder and Director of the Labor and Employment Law Department

Multi-national corporations face a complex range of immigration-related issues when establishing new operations abroad and supporting existing operations around the world. They must pay careful attention to complying with local commercial law, tax, employment, and other related issues. A vital component is coordinating and implementing an immigration compliance strategy that ensures the company can deploy its key workforce within the critical timeframe that it needs.

This webinar features experienced immigration lawyers from around the world who will discuss:

- Different approaches to short- and long-term international visits and work assignments
- Work authorization of dependents

- Important recent immigration developments in some of the world's most active markets

Who Should Attend?

The webinar is an invitation-only event exclusively for clients of ELA member law firms. The information presented will be of particular interest to:

- In-house Counsel
- Human Resources Professionals
- Corporate Executives and Business Owners

CLE/HRCI Credit

The Employment Law Alliance is not able to offer CLE/HRCI credits; however, for states that will accept it, a Certificate of Attendance will be posted with the other webinar materials immediately following the webinar for you to download as needed.
