ALL CLIENTS AND FRIENDS:

I am writing to invite you to a free 90-minute webinar sponsored by the Employment Law Alliance entitled, “A Year in Review: Key U.S. Labor Law Developments in 2010 and What to Expect in 2011.” The attached announcement describes the program more fully, including the specific issues that the speakers will address.

You are welcome to share this invitation with as many of your colleagues as you want. Since registration is per site, only one person needs to register if you will be in the same room listening together. If you will be in different offices or in different locations, each person will need to register. You will listen to the webinar and view the PowerPoint slides via your computer, so please be sure you have that capability (links and instructions for downloading any software will be included in your registration confirmation).

As you may know, by virtue of our membership in the Employment Law Alliance, we have the capability and resources to handle all of your employment and labor law needs in every US state and in more than 125 countries.

One of the benefits we provide to our clients is free access to the ELA’s Global Employer Handbook. This one-of-a-kind online resource provides practical information on hiring and firing, pay and benefits and all other key employment and H.R. law issues throughout the world. If you haven't yet registered to use this service, I encourage you to do so. I know you will find it useful.

To register, please visit: www.employmentlawalliance.com; on the right side of your computer screen, under “Webinars,” click the link to register.

If you have any questions about the issues that will be presented or the details of registering, please let me know, or you can contact Linda Henderson at the Employment Law Alliance at: leh@employmentlawalliance.com. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to attend this program.

A companion program to the January 2011 ELA webinar on key U.S. employment law developments

The pro-labor Obama Administration has already begun changing decades of NLRB rule and practice with one goal: making union organizing easier. This webinar will discuss the most important recent labor law developments and suggest practical ways to minimize your risk as an employer due to union organizing. Speakers will address such issues as:

- Reasons why a union can negatively impact your business
- Why the current work force is becoming more receptive to the union message
- Reversal of Republican precedent: NLRB decisions that the Obama Board is poised to issue
- Can employees disparage the company and its supervisors on social network sites? Protected concerted activity in 2011
- The Obama Labor Board and regulatory changes they can make without going to Congress
- Trends in collective bargaining that will impact non-union properties (and how union employers can avoid)
- Ten things that every employer should do now to prepare for labor law change in 2011

The webinar is an invitation-only event exclusively for clients of ELA member law firms. The information presented will be of particular interest to:
